Freedom and choice at every stage of life

Whether your goal is a comfortable retirement, education for your children or having the right financial security plan in place for your business, a financial security advisor with Freedom 55 Financial can help you get there.

A plan tailored to your needs

Understanding your goals and dreams is important in building the right plan for you. In the convenience of your home or office, your financial security advisor will:

- Complete a full needs analysis to evaluate all of your financial security needs
- Discuss wealth creation, insurance protection and estate planning
- Make recommendations and help you implement them over time

A regular review of your financial security plan is important to ensure it continues to meet your needs at every stage of your life.

A broad range of products and services

In addition to our own brand of London Life insurance and investment products, Freedom 55 Financial offers a broad range of products from industry-leading financial services companies such as Sun Life Financial, Manulife Financial and Great-West Life.

At Freedom 55 Financial, we have a coast-to-coast team of almost 3,000 professional financial security advisors to help you with all of your financial security planning needs. Each is backed by a team of product experts, and tax and estate planning specialists.

A history of strength and stability

A division of London Life, Freedom 55 Financial is backed by a history of strength and stability. London Life is a subsidiary of The Great-West Life Assurance Company. Together, Great-West and London Life serve the financial security needs of more than nine million people across Canada. London Life and Great-West are members of the Power Financial Corporation group of companies.
