AFOA Canada-Nutrien

Volunteer Who Inspires Award

AFOA Canada is now accepting nominations for the 2019 AFOA Canada-Nutrien Volunteer Who Inspires Award.

About the Award

The Volunteer Who Inspires Award will go to the individual who:

- Inspires through commitment, contribution and engagement in their community or organization;
- Is a respected and respectful individual who has the best interests of the community or organization in mind;
- Influences change across all community members; and
- Has made their work sustainable for future leaders to carry on.

Call for Nominations

- Do you know an individual who has made a significant contribution to your community or organization through their volunteer endeavours?
- Did their contributions result in enhanced management, performance, or governance at the community or organizational level?
- Do you want to recognize and acknowledge that individual?

Join us by acknowledging and nominating such an exceptional individual!

Awards will be presented at a special ceremony during the AFOA Canada National Conference on Thursday, October 10, 2019 in Saskatoon. The recipient will receive complimentary registration and financial assistance with travel to the conference.
