Holiday Inn, Sudbury

1696 Regent St.

Sudbury, ON

P3E 3Z8

1 (705) 522-3000

Who Should Attend?

Aboriginal Finance Officers, Band Administrators, Chiefs, Councilors and Sr. Program Managers working in First Nation communities & organizations across Ontario.

Join us for an exciting 2-day conference that focuses on Risk Management within our Indigenous communities & organizations. This is your opportunity to network and hear from other professionals about best practices and trends in Aboriginal finance & management.

Tentative Agenda Items:

- Reducing Accidents & Community Litigation
- When should employers request Police Record Checks?
- Assessing Financial Risk-How to Identify & Mitigate
- Information Sessions on CAPA, FMB & FNFA
- Trade show/artisans & more!

We are also proud to partner with AFOA Canada to offer a 1-day Pre-Conference Workshop event:

Tuesday, August 13th, 2019

Please note separate registration for this workshop is required

Human Resources Management Essentials: Module 5 – Drug and Alcohol Policies

This workshop addresses how to develop and implement drug and alcohol policies that takes into consideration the impact of the new Cannabis Act, recent court decisions and updates to the Canada Labour Code that come into effect in September 2019. It will help participants to assess and update their existing Drug and Alcohol policies based on existing human rights, employment and privacy legislation. It also provides participants with information on how to communicate with supervisors and employees about updated policies, how to define safety-sensitive positions that may be subject to drug-testing, and how to identify potential impairment. The workshop ends with a discussion on the importance of documenting critical incidents and accommodating employees.
